

Harvard – Edinburgh Legal Theory Colloquium

University of Edinburgh - February 24-25, 2017

---

Keynote:
Prof. Timothy Endicott (Oxford)

---

Friday 24 February, 2017:

0930-1800 - Rm. 9.01 David Hume Tower

Lucas Miotto (Edinburgh):
Law and the Disposition to Coerce

Wendy Salkin (Harvard):
Why Stop Snitching? Morally Evaluating Confidential Informants

Paul Burgess (Edinburgh):
Deriving the International Rule of Law:
An Unnecessary, Impractical and Unhelpful Exercise.

Konstantin Tretyakov (Harvard):
Philosophical and Legal Analysis of Intention in Physician-Assisted Suicide

Louis Ramirez (Edinburgh):
Freedom and Hate Speech: The Case for Regulation

Saturday 25 February, 2017:

1000-1530 – Rm. 9.01 David Hume Tower

Gustavo Ribeiro (Harvard):
Evidentiary Policy through Other Means

Martin Kelly (Edinburgh):
Contractual Interpretation: Defending the South African Revolution

Prof. Timothy Endicott (Oxford):
Colloquium Keynote Address

This event has been made possible by:

